

Major General John Uberti is the Deputy Commanding General for III Corps and Fort Hood.

Major General Uberti is originally from Merrick, NY and was commissioned in the Field Artillery in 1983 upon graduation from the U.S. Military Academy. He has served in a variety of command and staff positions from Battery through Headquarters, Department of the Army level.

During Operations DESERT SHIELD and DESERT STORM, Major General Uberti commanded Battery B, 2nd Battalion, 319th Airborne Field Artillery Regiment. He served in Operation ENDURING FREEDOM as the Deputy Commanding General, Regional Command East, and as the CJ5 for ISAF Joint Command.

Major General Uberti also served as the Fort Sill Garrison Commander, the Commanding General, Installation Management Command - Korea Region, and as the Deputy Commanding General, US Army Installation Management Command.

Prior to his arrival to Fort Hood, Major General Uberti was the Chief of Staff, United States Strategic Command.

He and his wife, Linda, have two children—Michael and Giovanna.