

News Release

US Army Corps of Engineers ®
Galveston District

Release No. CESWG-PA-090806 Contact: Martha Cenkci

For Release: Immediate 15 Sep 08 Phone: 281-752-2601

Corps begins clearing Hurricane Ike debris in Galveston

Houston, TX - U.S. Army Corps of Engineers contractor, Ceres Environmental, in coordination with the Texas Department of Transportation, begins its first FEMA-directed debris removal mission along 61st St., in Galveston. The Corps has contracted 20 crews to help clear the way for first responders and recovery teams to enter the city to assess impacts to infrastructure and to begin restoring essential public services and facilities. (US Army Corps of Engineers photo by Shane Braley)

- 30 -

Check out the Galveston District website at www.swg.usace.army.mil for the latest on Hurricane Ike recovery operations and other district information.

