

Family Readiness

Family Readiness Services are in place to help educate and train the following:

- Unit Family Readiness Groups
- Command Groups
- Rear Detachment Groups
- Volunteers

The Indiana National Guard Family Programs Office has a full-time Family Readiness Assistant who helps ensure that all units have a current appointment for the Family Readiness Groups. The SrFRSA can be reached at 1-800-237-2850 ext. 85458.

In addition, there are eight Family Readiness Support Assistants throughout the state available to support deploying and re-deploying units. These personnel are direct support to the unit commanders for managing, providing resources, and supporting the unit's Family Readiness Group. They are assigned as units reach the window for deployment.
