"Treating People Right"

Employee Assistance Program

What Is An Employee Assistance Program (EAP)?

The EAP is a confidential, professional resource that is provided by your employer. With a staff of counselors, psychologists, attorneys and other helping professionals the program can help employees and their family members resolve personal problems. The services are delivered by Human Behavior Associates, Inc.

Who Is Human Behavior Associates (HBA)?

Human Behavior Associates is a private firm that specializes in providing employee counseling and assistance programs.

The staff is composed of psychologists, clinical social workers, marriage and family therapists, attorneys, financial counselors and addictions counselors. All counseling staff members are in private practice and readily available. Day, evening and Saturday appointments are available.

Human Behavior Associates, Inc.

What Specific Services Are Available ?

- No cost counseling services with licensed, professional counselors.
- Free legal consultations. Reduced fee legal services.
- Free debt counseling. Low cost debt repayment plans.
- Free financial planning services.
- Preferred rates for treatment of psychiatric, emotional, marital/family, and substance abuse problems.
- Referral services for community resources, self-help support groups, eldercare and childcare resources and other services.

Is The EAP Private ?

All contact between employees and the EAP is strictly confidential. No one is advised regarding who uses the program. Your personal matters will not be disclosed to anyone, except at your written request.

How Much Does it Cost ?

You may see a licensed counselor or attorney at no cost. Your employer has contracted with HBA to provide a specific number of no-cost counseling sessions. For continued treatment, ongoing legal services, financial planning or debt management services, there may be charges. HBA has arranged for lowered costs for any continuing services.

Who Pays For The EAP ?

The services of the EAP are 100% paid for by your employer. The organization recognizes that the employee with a personal or family problem is not an effective employee. Therefore, this program is an investment in the quality of work life for all employees. It is sincerely hoped that employees with personal or family problems will make use of the services.
