

Frequently Asked Questions

Non-Temporary Storage

How can I research information concerning shipping and storing my Personal Property and POV?

Go to www.sddc.army.mil and click on Personal Property on the left side of the screen. On the right side of the screen there are information pamphlets for both Shipping/Storing Your Household Goods and POV.

If I have TDY Orders (DD Form 1610) sending me overseas for 179 days, can I store my household goods and ship some also?

No, Non-Temporary Storage is not authorized for TDY and return to the same duty station. No HHG shipment is authorized, you may only ship UB.

What are my entitlements if I'm attending a service school in conjunction with a PCS?

If you are attending a course of instruction, of 20 weeks or more, you are authorized a shipment to the location of your school. You are also authorized Non-Temporary storage of any part of your weight allowance. If your PCS orders include TDY en route you are also authorized to store your property pending completion of your TDY then shipment to your PCS duty station.
