

U.S. ARMY SUSTAINMENT COMMAND

COL Diana Torres Commander, Army Sustainment Command-Army Reserve Element

Colonel Diana Torres assumed command of the Army Sustainment Command-Army Reserve Element on 14 September 2015. She previously served as the commander of the Fort Hood Detachment, Army Sustainment Command-Army Reserve Element from 30 March to 14 September 2015.

COL Torres enlisted in the Army Reserves in 1984 and received her ROTC Commission in 1987 as Distinguished Military Graduate. COL Torres has served in the Army Reserves for 16 years, Regular Army for 8 Years and the National Guard for 3 years.

COL Torres assignments include a deployment in support of Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm out of Fort Hood, TX; S-1 for the 553rd Support Battalion; Munitions Material Officer for the 4th Material Management Center; Chief, Special Plans and Operations Division, 3rd COSCOM in Germany; Company Commander, 184th Ordnance (DS) Company; Support Operations Maintenance Management Officer, 6th Corps Support Group; Special Assistant to Commander in Chief, SOUTHCOM, Miami, FL; Executive Officer to the Commanding General for USARSO at Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico; Logistics Planner, USARSO, Texas with a deployment in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom with 1st Sustainment Command (Theater) in Kuwait. Material Management Officer; Chief, Port Support Activity; Chief, Logistics Support Element, Army Reserve Sustainment Command; and Battalion Commander, 2-354 (BCT) Regiment.

COL Torres has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Puerto Rico and a Master's in Science Administration from Central Michigan University. She is a graduate of the Ordnance Officer Basic Course, Combined Logistics Officer Advanced Course, Combined Arms and Services Staff School, Command and General Staff College; and National Security Course.

She is married and has two sons.

Oct 2015

