Everyone Have a Safe and Happy Summer!

Summer Explorations: <http://summer.eportalnow.net>

The purpose of this website is to present a resource where both parents and students may turn to experience exciting ideas in education. Some website links are suitable for older students to explore on their own. Parents of younger children will probably want to spend some time exploring the links with their children, guiding them to areas to promote growth and learning. Throughout the website, students of all ages, abilities, and interests will be inspired and motivated to learn for the fun of it!
