Nürnberg Dungeons

Rathausplatz 2 – 90403 Nürnberg – 0911-231-2690 – www.museen.nuernberg.de/lochgefaengnisse

Highlights: Just a few steps away from the main market square, vaulted cellars below the splendid city hall built in Nürnberg's golden age accommodate the medieval dungeons.

They were established as early as the 14th century and were not prisons as we know them today, but were used mainly for prisoners awaiting trial and for convicted criminals awaiting execution of their judgment. Twelve small cells and one larger one, a torture chamber called "Chapel" because of its dimensions, paint a depressing picture of the gruesome practices of justice in former times.

The dungeons may only be visited on a guided tour in German (about 20 minutes). It is not advised for children under ten years of age.

Opening Hours:

Summer season (April – October): daily 10 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Documentation Center

Nazi Party Rally Grounds

Bayernstraße 110 – 90478 Nürnberg – 0911-231-5666 – www.museen.nuernberg.de/dokuzentrum

Highlights: To this day, in Nürnberg's southern districts, the remains of the buildings on the former Nazi Party Rally Grounds with their immense proportions are a vivid testimony to the megalomania of the National Socialist regime. This area of eleven square kilometers was intended as an impressive backdrop for the Nazi party rallies staged here to demonstrate their power.

The Documentation Centre Nazi Party Rally Grounds, often shortened to Dokuzentrum (Docu Center), is located in the north wing of the Congress Hall, designed by the National Socialists to house 50,000 spectators, remained unfinished, though. With its "glass and steel arrow," piercing the north wing, the Documentation Centre is a widely visible architectural counterpoint. It focuses on the topics which have a direct link to Nürnberg, and is centered on 19 exhibition areas which are structured in chronological order: the history of the party rallies, the buildings of the Nazi Party Rally Grounds, the "Nürnberg Racial Laws" of 1935, the "Nürnberg Trials" of the main perpetrators of Nazi crimes in 1945/46 and the twelve follow-up trials, as well as the difficult problem of dealing with the National Socialists' architectural heritage after 1945.

Opening Hours:

Mo – Fri: 9 a.m. – 6 p.m.

Sat & Sun: 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.

Admission: € 5 regular admission; various family rates and student group rates available.
