

International Police Work Dog Association training at MUTC

MUSCATATUCK URBAN TRAINING CENTER, Ind. – The International Police Work Dog Association will be holding a week of training and workshops at the Muscatatuck Urban Training Center in Butlerville, Ind., beginning Monday, October 26 and running through Thursday, October 29.

Over 100 Police working dogs and their handlers from 14 states will be participating in this year's training session, sponsored by the International Police Work Dog Association Board in association with the Indiana State Police.

Media is invited to observe the training on Monday, October 26, at the Muscatatuck Urban Training Center. The official kick-off ceremony will take place at 8 a.m.

The point of contact for the training is Indiana State Police Sgt. Tony Knox. To attend the training, contact Sgt. Knox at (260) 235-0866 or email him at tknox@isp.in.gov.