

FULL-TIME STUDENTS OVER AGE 21 BUT LESS THAN AGE 23

Students are eligible for an ID card if they meet the following criteria:

- Unmarried children of 21 or 22 years of age (have not attained the age of 23).
- Enrolled in a full-time in an accredited institution of higher learning. Exception: Students in their final term, semester, or quarter may carry less than a full time load if that is the remainder needed for graduation. Note: Consult with installation education office to resolve difficulties in determining approved accredited institutions of higher learning.
- Student enrolled less than full time in two institutions of higher learning may not combine hours to qualify as full time students.
- Unmarried children 21 years or older who are not enrolled full time in school but are performing missionary duties as part of the school's requirement to obtain their degree are not entitled to ID cards.
- Dependent on the sponsor for over 50 percent of their support (or were at the time of the sponsor's death).
- Students remain eligible for ID card benefits and privileges until age 23 or graduation, whichever occurs first.

Required education enrollment verification letter (from school registrar on school letterhead) must include:
