Vision and Mission

VISION

Transform the Way Society Moves

MISSION

Conduct research, development, and education activities to facilitate the adoption of information and communication technology to enable society to move more safely and efficiently.

Program Categories

- Connected Vehicles program category will be primarily focused on adoption and eventual deployment of the system.

- Automation research will focus on topics related to automated road-vehicle systems and related technologies that transfer some amount of vehicle control from the driver to the vehicle.

- Emerging Capabilities will focus on future generations of transportation systems.

- Enterprise Data programs will continue existing efforts in operational data capture from stationary sensors, mobile devices, and connected vehicles, and expand into research activities involving the development of mechanisms for housing, sharing, analyzing, transporting, and applying those data for improved safety and mobility across all modes of travel.

- Interoperability focuses on how to ensure effective connectivity among devices and systems.

- Accelerating Deployment advances the work from adoption to wider scale deployment in coordination with several other DOT agencies.
