MAY TRAINING SESSIONS

Interested in taking an NHI training course?

There are more than 40 NHI courses currently scheduled across the country in the month of May. Visit the NHI Web site to see a list of this month's training sessions.

If you can't make it to any of NHI's in-person, Instructor-led trainings, you can always take a self-paced, Web-based training (WBT). NHI now offers more than 140 WBTs. Select this link to see a complete list of NHI's WBTs.

TRANSPORTATION IN THE NEWS

NHI to Recognize National Transportation Week: May 12-18

Every day people around the Nation rely on the roads, rails, and skies to travel to and from their destinations. Since its 1962 declaration, National Transportation Week has provided an opportunity to highlight the accomplishments and commitment made to transportation operations Nationwide.

In recognition of this week (May 12-18), NHI will present a series of trainings that range across the 17 program areas.

NHI continues to deliver on its pledge to offer high-quality training to transportation professionals, and ensure highways are safe for motorists. For more information on NHI's courses, please visit the NHI Web site.

Course Spotlight: Transportation Asset Management Courses

Transportation asset management (TAM) is a strategic approach to managing physical transportation infrastructure. TAM programs minimize life-cycle costs for managing and maintaining transportation assets, including roads, bridges, tunnels, rails, and roadside features.

The Moving Ahead for Progress in the 21st Century Act (MAP-21) mandates that all States must have asset management plans in place by 2015. NHI offers a series of courses designed to help transportation organizations build successful asset management programs, and to give guidance in the development of asset management plans that comply with MAP-21 requirements.
