

PHMSA Pipeline Risk Modeling Methodologies Public Workshop

Agenda Overview – Day 2

Thursday, September 10, 2015

8:30AM ET - Opening

12:00 Noon – Adjourn

Crystal City Marriott - Arlington, VA

1

Welcome Everyone – Day 2!

- Welcome - to all here at the Crystal City Marriott and on the Webcast
- Thank you to all participating moderators, speakers, and attendees for supporting both in this room and via webcast

Thursday's Agenda - AM

- 8:30AM ET Opening - Alan Mayberry
- 8:40AM Panel : Risk Modeling Methodologies – Part 2
 - Scott Randall, Global Business Management Consultants, LLC
 - Mark Stephens, C-FER Technologies
 - Andrew Kendrick, Kendrick Consulting LLc
- 9:25 AM Q&A - Scott Randall, Mark Stephens, and Andrew Kendrick
- 9:35 AM BREAK
- 9:50 AM – “Pipelines, Acceptable Risk, and the Public: Improving Risk Management and Communication”
 - Sara Gosman, University of Arkansas, School of Law
- 10:10 AM – Practical Risk Modeling Challenges – PHMSA
- 10:40 AM – Panel Discussion / Q&A Opportunity – PHMSA
- 11:10 AM - Path Forward – PHMSA
- 12:00 Noon - Adjournment

3

Housekeeping Items

- Emergency Exits
- Cell Phones
 - Silence or put on vibrate
- Coffee (on your own ☹)
- Restrooms

Input Please

- This is everyone's opportunity to help shape the outcome
- Open floor questions after each group of presenters
 - Floor & Roaming Mics
 - Index Cards at Registration Desk
 - Webcast audience – link on webcast or email to pipelineforum@dot.gov

Today's Event Files

- All presentation files, handouts and webcast recording will be available via the meeting page:
<http://primis.phmsa.dot.gov/meetings/MtgHome.mtg?mtg=104>
- Additional comments welcome via docket
<http://www.regulations.gov/#!docketDetail;D=PHMSA-2015-0139>

Enjoy the Day

7

U.S. Department of Transportation
Pipeline and Hazardous Materials
Safety Administration

To Protect People and the Environment From the Risks of Hazardous Materials Transportation

