

Federal Highway Administration Federal Lands Highway

Completed Project Survey

Federal Lands Highway

Completed Project Survey	afied tisfied t Know
Directions: Please indicate your level of satisfaction with the conditions addressed below. Use the rating scale to represent your best judgment.	Very Dissatisfied Dissatisfied Neither Dissatisfied nor Satisfied Satisfied Very Satisfied
1. FLH's Management Practices	Ver Dis Nei nor Sati
 a) Management of the construction schedule. b) Management of the construction costs. c) Timeliness of response to guidance and requests by your agency. d) Quality of response to guidance and requests by your agency. e) FLH and construction contractors working together to resolve problems. f) Overall job of managing the construction.
2. Completed Project Elements
 a) Pavement or bridge surface (texture and ride). b) Drainage structures (culverts, channels, and ditches). c) Major structures (bridges, walls, etc.). d) Stability of cut and fill slopes and road shoulders. e) Maintainability (mowing, vegetation, snow removal, etc.).
3. Completed Project Aesthetics
 a) Landscaping and seeding. b) Striping (roadway and parking areas). c) Alignment of guardrails, walls, and roadside appurtenances. d) Earth shoulders and slopes (including rock slopes). e) Drainage structures (culverts, channels, and ditches). f) Major structures (bridges, walls, etc.). g) The overall aesthetics of the completed project.
4. Conditions during Construction
 a) Roadway conditions. b) Detours and traffic flow. c) Safety of motorists and non-motorists. d) Accommodation of landowners. e) Access to business and adjacent property. f) Signage. g) Your perception of overall public reaction during construction.
5. Environmental Sensitivity
 a) Preservation of existing vegetation. b) Protection and preservation of natural, historical, and cultural resources. c) Riparian (preservation and establishment of vegetation adjacent to streams). d) Erosion and sediment control. e) Materials source/waste area management. f) Environmental compliance with contract.
6. Overall Rating
a) Overall quality of the completed project.

COMMENTS

Tiedse record your comments, suggestions, and recommendations in the space provided below.
FLH's Management Practices:
Completed Project Elements:
Completed Project Aesthetics:
Conditions During Construction:
Environmental Sensitivity:
General Comments:
Thank you for taking time to complete the Federal Lands Highway Completed Project Survey.

Thank you for taking time to complete the Federal Lands Highway Completed Project Survey Your input is greatly appreciated.