

Military Community and Family Policy Fact Sheet

Data

- ✓ Military OneSource tax services are available free to service members and their families.
- ✓ The Military OneSource free electronic filing service now allows eligible participants to include charitable deductions, mortgage interest and rental property on their tax returns.
- ✓ Download military W-2 forms by visiting <https://mypay.dfas.mil/mypay.aspx>.

Additional information

Military OneSource
<http://www.militaryonesource.mil>
 800-342-9647

Internal Revenue Service
<http://www.irs.gov>

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program locations
http://www.militaryonesource.mil/financial-and-legal/taxes?content_id=289972

Military OneSource Tax Services

Background

In recognition of the complicated nature of filing taxes as a military service member, and in support of financial readiness, the Department of Defense offers free tax consultation and electronic filing services through Military OneSource to service members and their families.

Highlights

As part of the Family Readiness System, Military OneSource provides valuable tools and information for tax season:

- The free tax preparation and filing service allows eligible service members and their families to complete and electronically file their federal and up to three state tax returns or filings with the support and experience of tax experts. These filings are backed by a 100 percent accuracy guarantee.
- Military OneSource tax consultants provide specialized support to help service members and their families understand unique tax requirements related to military personnel, maximize their refunds and connect to additional resources and services. Tax consultants are available free of charge to service members and their families by calling Military OneSource at 800-342-9647.
- Military OneSource tax consulting and electronic filing services promote the financial readiness of service members and their families, helping them to complete their taxes, successfully meet financial obligations and save money for the future. Access these services by calling 800-342-9647 or by visiting select Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program locations.

