

Why This Matters

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) provides public assistance to state, Tribal, and local governments, and certain types of private nonprofit organizations so that communities can quickly respond to and recover from major disasters or emergencies declared by the President. We perform audits of FEMA grantees and subgrantees to determine whether costs claimed under the awards are eligible and allowable under federal regulations and FEMA guidelines. The City of Miami Beach, Florida (City) received an award of $1.7 million for damages related to Hurricane Katrina.

DHS Response

FEMA's written response is due within 90 days.

What We Determined

The City did not account for large project expenditures on a project-by-project basis. We also identified $39,887 of costs resulting from non disaster-related and unsupported charges.

What We Recommend

We recommend that the Regional Director, FEMA Region IV:

- 1) Instruct the City, for future declarations, to account for FEMA funds on a project-by-project basis as required by federal regulations.
- 2) Disallow $2,096 of non disaster-related charges.
- 3) Disallow $37,791 of unsupported charges.
