

Morning Announcements Distracted Driving

More than 3000 distracted drivers crash and die every year. Forget the phone and mind the road. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

It's better to stay alive than to stay connected. Don't text or talk on your phone while driving. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Dying in a car wreck is the ultimate unexcused absence. Don't drive with your phone in your hand. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Since nearly 50 percent of teens text while driving, and 8 teens die every day in traffic accidents, if we all just realize "One Text or Call Could Wreck It All" we could save our life or a friend's life.

We want you here tomorrow. And the next day. And the next day. Don't talk or text while driving. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Keep your mind on the road when you get behind the wheel. Don't drive distracted.

Car crashes are the single leading cause of death in teenagers in the US. One of the main causes is distracted driving. Don't talk or text on your phone while you drive. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Even little things can be big distractions when you drive. Keep your hands on the wheel and eyes on the road. Don't drive distracted.

It's no coincidence that distracted driving and teen traffic deaths are on the rise. Don't drive with your phone in your hand. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

The radio, your cell phone, food, even your friends – these all can be distractions while you're driving. Keep your mind on the road when you get behind the wheel.

Imagine 8 empty seats in your classroom. That's how many teenagers die every day in traffic accidents. Most of them from talking or texting while driving. Keep the classroom full. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

Eating while you drive can be a bigger disaster than just getting mustard on your shirt. Stay focused on the road when you get behind the wheel.

There's one area where you can beat your parents: Teenagers are 4 times more likely to die in a car crash than adults. Don't talk or text while you drive. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

For every second your eyes aren't on the road, you miss a lot you need to see. Keep your eyes and mind on the road when you're driving. Don't drive distracted.

No call is more important than your life. More than 3000 distracted drivers crash and die every year. Don't talk or text while driving. One Text or Call Could Wreck It All.

If you don't pay attention in class, you might fail. If you don't pay attention when you drive, you might crash. Don't drive distracted.

