

Partnerships In Education

My Role as a SLO is to assist units in their Programs. I help establish lines of communications and meetings between the Command and the Schools. I can assist tracking the success of the program by meeting with the key partners and helping to keep the communicates lines open. I can also assist in unique situations by coordinating with other units when mission dictates a shortage of manpower for certain special events.

