

NAVAL MAGAZINE INDIAN ISLAND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

We are proud of our environmental stewardship and are committed to operating in an environmentally responsible manner where national defense and environmental protection are, and must be, compatible goals.

Our vision is to be recognized as an environmentally friendly neighbor, actively engaged in community outreach, resource conservation and pollution prevention while effectively executing the Navy mission. With integrated support from tenant commands, our policies and decisions aim to instill a culture of environmental stewardship and continual improvement.

We are committed to comply with all applicable legal and other requirements which relate to our environmental aspects and impacts. When executing the Navy mission, the Chain of Command will support the attainment of environmental objectives and targets. We are also committed to:

- Continual Improvement
- Awareness
- Resource Conservation
- Environmental Compliance

N.A. VANDE GRIEND
Commander, U. S. Navy
Commanding Officer,
Naval Magazine Indian Island

CNRNW supports Naval Magazine Indian Island's environmental policy and commitment to its Environmental Management System for maintaining environmental compliance, improving environmental quality, and achieving pollution prevention goals.

J. S. RUTH
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy
Commander, Navy Region Northwest

Environmental Policy is available to the public and can be found at:
http://www.cnmc.navy.mil/regions/cnrnw/om/environmental\_support.html