The Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam Coalition for Sailors Against Destructive Decisions (CSADD) is working this month to raise awareness about issues such as alcohol responsibility and sexual assault, said Master-at-Arms 3rd Class Abrel Smith, CSADD advocate.

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month.

An event to bring awareness to sexual assault in the military will be held April 24 at the Marine Corps Base Hawaii, Kaneohe Bay food court at 5:30 p.m.

The event will include a "flash mob" and Denim Day to bring attention to sexual assault. It will feature Kelly Clarkson's song "Stronger," Smith said.

In addition, April is also Alcohol Awareness Month.

Smith contacted Pearl Harbor Navy Exchange (NEX) mini mart manager Van Gould who allowed CSADD to place several "That Guy" window clings on the coolers doors to all refrigerated alcohol.

When service members and their family members visit the installation's NEX to purchase alcohol, the stickers have the friendly reminder: "Don't Be That Guy."

In addition, CSADD chapter members Smith, of the JBPHH Security Department, and Boatswain's Mate 2nd Class Ozzie Anderson, JBPHH port ops/dock master, went to the Pearl Harbor Commissary this month with a That Guy Banner to increase alcohol awareness in their community.
