

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING COMMAND

Public Affairs Office

2834 Green Bay Road, North Chicago, IL 60064-3094

Phone: (847) 688-4874 Fax: (847) 688-2664

First Sergeant Yveline Symonette

United States Army

Senior Enlisted Advisor

Knoxville Military Entrance Processing Station

First Sergeant Yveline Symonette is the senior enlisted advisor of the Knoxville Military Entrance Processing Station.

First Sergeant Symonette enlisted in the Army in August 1996 and attended basic training at the Fort Jackson, South Carolina. Her assignments include personnel clerk, Headquarters, 554th Engineer Battalion, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri; personnel clerk, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 5th Corps, Heidelberg, Germany; reassignments clerk, promotion noncommissioned officer in charge, administrative noncommissioned officer in charge forward, leave program liaison forward, platoon sergeant, and personnel service noncommissioned officer in charge, 510th Adjutant General Detachment B, 1st Personnel Command, Heidelberg, Germany, and deployed to Kuwait, Hungary and Afghanistan; human resources sergeant and senior human resources sergeant, 3rd Sustainment Brigade, Fort Stewart, Georgia, and deployed to Iraq; professional development noncommissioned officer, Human Resources Command, Fort Knox, Kentucky; and personnel noncommissioned officer in charge, Eighth Army, Yongsan, Republic of Korea.

First Sergeant Yveline professional military education includes the Warrior, Advanced, and Senior Leaders Courses; Supervisor Development Program, Manager Development Program, Action Officer Course, Small Arms Course, and the Combat Lifesavers Course. She earned an Associate's degree from Central Texas College, Killeen, Texas.

Her military awards and decoration include four Meritorious Service Medals, four Army Commendation Medals, five Army Achievement Medals, and various unit and campaign medals. She also earned the German Armed Forces Badge of Marksmanship.