

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING COMMAND

Public Affairs Office

2834 Green Bay Road, North Chicago, Illinois 60064-3094

Phone: (847) 688-4874 Fax: (847) 688-2664

Command Senior Chief Jennifer M. Newman

United States Navy

Senior Enlisted Advisor

Fort Lee Military Entrance Processing Station

Command Senior Chief Jennifer M. Newman is the senior enlisted advisor at Fort Lee Military Entrance Processing Station.

She enlisted in the Navy at the Syracuse Military Entrance Processing Station in June 1996 and attended basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Illinois. Her assignments include aviation storekeeper, Fleet Air Reconnaissance Squadron 2, homeported in Rota, Spain; cryptologic technician communications, Naval Security Group Activity, Kunia, Hawaii; system administrator, Navy Component Task Force Computer Network Defense Washington, District of Columbia; security supervisor, Naval Security Group Activity in Fort Meade, Maryland; master-at-arms, Commander Fleet Activities Yokosuka, Japan; watch commander, Naval Support Activity, Bahrain; chief master-at-arms, USS Porter, homeported in Norfolk, Virginia; recruit division commander, Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Illinois; and operations leading chief petty officer, Coastal Riverine Group ONE Detachment, Guam.

Her military training includes Antiterrorism Training Supervisor, Small Arms Marksmanship Instructor and Expeditionary Force – Combat Skills. She is a graduate of the United States Navy Senior Enlisted Academy (Class 195, Orange), and Command Master Chief/Chief of the Boat Courses. She is qualified as an Enlisted Surface Warfare Specialist, Enlisted Expeditionary Warfare Specialist and a certified Master Training Specialist. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from University of Maryland University College.

Command Senior Chief Newman's decorations include three Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, two Joint Service Achievement Medals, Navy and four Marine Corps Achievement Medals, and various unit and campaign awards.