PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S): Military recruiters use the information you provide on this form to collect additional information from the individuals, schools, and employers you list so that we can determine if you meet recruitment standards. If you do meet these standards and enlist, the information you provide on this form starts your Official Military Personnel File. During the recruiting process we use the information on this form to verify your identity. This form also contains a section where you are asked to provide your signed consent for your medical provider(s) to release your medical records to the DoD. While completed forms are covered by recruiting and official military personnel file SORNs maintained by each of the Services the primary SORN may be found at:

<http://dpclid.defense.gov/Privacy/SORNsIndex/DODwideSORNArticleView/tabid/6797/Article/570077/a0601-270-usmepcom-dod.aspx>

ROUTINE USE(S): Information is disclosed to the Selective Service System (SSS) to update the SSS registrant database and may also be disclosed to local and state Government agencies for compliance with laws and regulations governing control of communicable diseases. The specific DoD Blanket Routine Uses identified below (and also found at <http://dpclid.defense.gov/Privacy/SORNsIndex/BlanketRoutineUses.aspx>) also apply to this collection.

01. Law Enforcement Routine Use: If a system of records maintained by a DoD Component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the agency concerned, whether federal, state, local, or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto.

02. Disclosure When Requesting Information Routine Use: The DoD may disclose your information to a federal, state, or local agency maintaining civil, criminal, or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to your enlistment request (ie., a DoD decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee).

04. Congressional Inquiries Disclosure Routine Use: The DoD may disclose your record to your congressperson if your congressional office makes an inquiry at your request.

09. Disclosure to the Department of Justice for Litigation Routine Use: The DoD may disclose your record to the Department of Justice for the purpose of representing the Department of Defense, or any officer, employee or member of the Department in pending or potential litigation to which the record is pertinent.

12. Disclosure of Information to the National Archives and Records Administration Routine Use: The DoD may disclose your record to the National Archives and Records Administration for the purpose of records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.15. Data Breach Remediation Purposes Routine Use: The DoD may disclose your record to an appropriate agency, entity, or person when (1) The DoD suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of the information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) the DoD has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by the DoD or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

DISCLOSURE: Voluntary. However, if you fail to provide the requested information you might not be able to enlist. Your Social Security Number is used during the recruiting process to conduct background screening (e.g., law enforcement, medical, or educational records checks; former employer checks, work status, etc.), keep all of your records together during the enlistment process, and ensure your test results are properly recorded.
