

The University of North Texas Health Science Center is a graduate university housed on a 33-acre campus located in Fort Worth's Cultural District with over 1,700 students and 1750 full time faculty and staff. The University of North Texas Health Science Center Police Department is a full service law enforcement agency employing sworn police officers, public service officers and dispatchers. The diverse and growing University community provides the professional law enforcement officer with unique opportunities and challenges.

Our officers provide vehicle patrol, foot patrol and bike patrol coverage to our community. Patrol vehicles are equipped with computers and mobile video.

The UNTHSC Police Department offers a comprehensive and competitive compensation and benefits package.

For further information visit our employment page on our website at <http://www.hsc.unt.edu/departments/police/unthscpd.htm>.

To apply visit the UNTHSC jobs page at www.unthscjobs.com to view current job opportunities and complete an on-line application. For additional information contact Captain Laurie Crain at 817-735-2210 or laurie.crain@unthsc.edu.

Minimum Requirements:

- Must be a U.S Citizen
- Must be 21 years of age
- Must have a valid Texas drivers license
- No conviction for any felony
- No conviction for Class A or B misdemeanors

All candidates for sworn police officer positions must be able to comply with TCLEOSE requirements for licensure.

The University of North Texas Health Science Center is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to sex, race, creed, color, age, national origin, physical or mental disability.