MBA in Logistics and Supply Chain Management

The Department of Marketing and Logistics continue a long-term commitment to excellence in graduate education. The departmental faculty recruited from nationally and internationally recognized universities, represents a wide range of teaching and research expertise. Graduates of the program pursue careers in a broad spectrum of industries.

Career opportunities after you complete the MBA program through the Department of Marketing and Logistics are very good. An MBA with a concentration in Logistics and Supply Chain Management supports growth and development from two perspectives. One, if you have an established career path, the programs provides you the opportunity to gain the broader, more general perspective necessary for promotion to leading managerial positions. Or, if you are preparing for the business world, the combination of an undergraduate degree with an MBA concentration in Logistics and Supply Chain Management provides an excellent foundation for additional career opportunities.

CAREER POSSIBILITIES

Distribution Manager | Fleet Operations Manager | Industrial Engineers | Inventory Management | Loss Prevention Manager | Operations Research Analyst | Production and Expediting Manager | Purchasing Manager | Shipping, Receiving, and Traffic Manager | Storage and Distribution Manager | Transportation Manager | Warehouse Manager

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

The Marketing and Logistics department sponsors two student organizations that are available for graduate students, the American Marketing Association (AMA) and the Logistics Students Association (LOGSA).
