Subj: Long Term Care Insurance

1. During the spring of 2011 there was an open season for the Federal Long Term Care Insurance Program (FLTCIP). The FLTCIP open seasons are held infrequently but you don't have to wait until the next open season to apply for long term care insurance. You can apply for FLTCIP coverage anytime using the full underwriting application. Because premiums are based on your age at the time of application, this is a good time to learn more. With the FLTCIP's educational Web site and knowledgeable program consultants, you can easily find the information you need to get started today.

- 2. You can learn more about FLTCIP by using the Online Consultant Tool available at http://tx.info.ltcfeds.com/track.aspx?1146204.1777918.5036226983.6386.285776_1724
 H which uses video and interactive features to help you learn about long term care and design a FLTCIP plan that suits your needs. Online webinars available at http://tx.info.ltcfeds.com/track.aspx?1146204.1777918.5036226983.6386.295417_1725
 H demonstrate how the FLTCIP can help secure a comfortable retirement and highlight the FLTCIP's comprehensive benefits and features.
- 3.
