- four discussion board postings
- one practical problems

Chapter Quiz Policy: There will be (4) different chapter unit quizzes over selected chapters from the textbook in each unit. The online part I of the quizzes will be timed and you will have 1 hour (60 min.) to complete the quiz. Do not leave the quiz for any reason and do not have long periods of non-activity inside the quiz for blackboard will lock you out automatically.

Remember each unit chapter assignment has a completion date.

- Each quiz will come from selected chapters in the textbook and worth 100 points toward the students final grade.
- Each quiz will consist of questions both multiple choice, true-false and short answer.
- Each quiz will be broken down into two parts.
- Part I will have a mix of (40) multiple choice and true-false questions worth 2 point each.
- Part II will have (20) short answer questions worth 1 point each. (your answers must be placed on the answer form furnished by the instructor and attached to a message sent to me via the Message Link).
- Five points will be deducted for failing to put your name on the submitted form.

Quizzes must be taken as scheduled. No makeup quiz will be allowed except for documented emergencies (See Student Handbook). If a student gets locked out of a quiz he or she must send me a message via the message link in to course stating why they were locked out and I will unlock the quiz so that the student may take it over. I will only unlock one quiz during the semester and the unlocked quiz must be taken before the unit assignment closing date.

Grading Matrix:

“Netiquette” For Online Courses:.

In any social interaction, certain rules of etiquette are expected and contribute to more enjoyable and productive communication. Emails, Discussion Board messages and/or any other forms of written communication in the online environment should use proper "netiquette" (i.e. no writing in all caps (usually denotes yelling), no curse words, and no "flaming" messages (angry, personal attacks).

Online Attendance and Participation in Online Courses:

The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. Class attendance in the Blackboard classroom and participation is expected because the class is designed as a shared learning experience, and because essential information not in the textbook will be discussed in the discussion board. Online presence and participation in all class discussions is essential to the integration of course material and your ability to demonstrate proficiency.

Attendance for this online or hybrid course is considered when you are logged in and active in Blackboard, i.e. posting assignments, taking quizzes, or completing Discussion Boards. To maintain financial aid award eligibility, activity must occur before the census date of the session or term of the course. Refer to <http://www.untDallas.edu/registrar> for specific dates. If you are absent/not active in the course shell, it is YOUR responsibility to let the instructor know immediately, upon your return, the reason for your absence if it is to be excused. All instructors must follow university policy 7.005 covering excused absences; however, it is the instructor's discretion, as outlined in the course syllabus of how unexcused absences may or may not count against successful completion of the course.

Inclement Weather and Online Classes:

Online classes may or may not be affected by campus closures due to inclement weather. Unless otherwise notified by your instructor via e-mail, online messaging, or

Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness Policy:

The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider the SETE to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Assignment Policy:

Any out of class assignments must be on required date if any or given.

Exam Policy:

Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except for documented emergencies (See Student Handbook).

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University's code of Academic Integrity policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Academic Integrity at <http://www.unt.edu/unt-allas/policies/Chapter%2007%20Student%20Affairs,%20Education,%20and%20Funding/7.002%20Code%20of%20Academic%20Integrity.pdf> for complete provisions of this code.

In addition, all academic work submitted for this class, including exams, papers, and written assignments should include the following statement:

On my honor, I have not given, nor received, nor witnessed any unauthorized assistance that violates the UNTD Academic Integrity Policy.

Diversity/Tolerance Policy:

Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions. However, offensive & inappropriate language (swearing) and remarks offensive to others of particular nationalities, ethnic groups, sexual preferences, religious groups, genders, or other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated. Disruptions which violate the Code of Student Conduct will be referred to the Office of Student Life as the instructor deems appropriate.

Optional Policies:

- Use of WebCT/Blackboard
- Use of Cell Phones & other Electronic Gadgets in the Classroom
- Food & Drink in the Classroom
