Course Goals or Overview: The goals of this course are as follows -

EDBE 3470 D 021	Provides alignment with State Board of Educator Certification (SBEC) standards and competencies of the Texas Education Agency (TEA) for bilingual and ESL teacher preparation and with professional standards of TESOL; foundations of first and second language acquisition; history of bilingual education in Texas and the U.S.; study of language development; program models and types; policies, assessment; law cases; teaching and learning practices; and applications from theory to practice. The course provides opportunities for inquiry, research, reflection, problem solving, and peer collaboration.

Learning Objectives/Outcomes: At the end of this course, students will be able to:

1	Identify and present accurate facts about the diversity of English Learners (EL), the benefits of bilingualism, and issues related to educational access and equity.
2	Identify the history of the implementation of bilingual education in the USA and specifically in Texas, as well as myths about immigrants that lead to misinformation and xenophobic attitudes.
3	Define English language structures and identify second language acquisition theories that promote second language acquisition in EC-6 and 4-8 classrooms.
4	Identify and discuss state and federal legal cases and relevant education laws that have benefitted ELs.

5	Define and distinguish program models and make appropriate instructional decisions to meet the affective, linguistic, and cognitive needs of second language learners.
6	Create and present individual and/or group projects designed to increase advocacy and collaborative skills to enhance effectiveness as a classroom teacher. These projects include: Law Cases, Bilingual Role Model, and Advocacy Plan.
7	Bridge the home-school language and cultural environment with appropriate strategies to reach out to language minority families.
8	Cite research findings about effective instructional and assessment practices for EL in listening, speaking, reading and writing.
9	Discuss reflections about critical issues in bilingual/ESL education such as: English Only vs. English Plus, High Stakes testing, special needs EL students, and legal and sociocultural issues.
10	Identify issues in testing practices and identify alternative methods of assessment.
NOTE	• The complete listing of TEA required Standards and Competencies are listed in Course Information in the Navigation Menu.

Course Evaluation Methods

Points are earned based on assigned rubrics or quiz/exam scores. Students are expected to earn points in each of the 6 categories listed below in the Grading Matrix. Two unexcused absences, or failure to earn points in EACH category will result in a reduction of your grade by 100 points. Assignments are accepted after the due dates, but are subject to a 10% point reduction of cumulative points earned if these exceed 5 late assignments.
A complete explanation of activities and assignments with due dates are located in COURSE INFORMATION Assignments Matrix with due dates and instructions.

Grading Matrix:

Activities/Assignments	Point Values
Discussion Boards	55 points
Chapter Quizzes	225 points
Multi-Media	150 points
Exams	165 points
Project Presentations	350 points
Article Reflections	55 points
Total:	1000 points

Grade Determination
A = 895-1000
B = 795-894
C = 695-794
D = 595-694
F = 594 or Less

University Policies and Procedures

Students with Disabilities (ADA Compliance):

Chapter 7(7.004) Disability Accommodations for Students

The University of North Texas at Dallas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodations must first register with the Disability Services Office (DSO) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the DSO will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, DSO notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet/communicate with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Disability Services Office website at http://www.untdallas.edu/disability. You may also contact them by phone at 972-338-1777; by email at UNTDdisability@untdallas.edu or at Building 2, room 204.

Blackboard Learn Accessibility Statement:
University of North Texas at Dallas is committed to ensuring its online and hybrid courses are usable by all students and faculty including those with disabilities. If you encounter any difficulties with technologies, please contact our ITSS Department. To better assist them, you would want to have the operating system, web browser and information on any assistive technology being used. Blackboard Learn course management system's accessibility statement is also provided: http://www.blackboard.com/Platforms/Learn/Resources/Accessibility.aspx

NOTE: Additional instructional technology tools, such as Turnitin, Respondus, Panopto, and publisher cartridge content (i.e. MyLab, Pearson, etc.) may NOT be fully ADA compliant. Please contact our Disability Office should you require additional assistance utilizing any of these tools.

Course Evaluation Policy:
Students' evaluations of teaching effectiveness is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT Dallas. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider students' evaluations to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Assignment Policy: (According to the instructor's discretion while working in concert with the division/program's guidelines).

Exam Policy: (Online exams and the ability to retake is solely at the instructor's discretion). NOTE: Online exams may be proctored on campus per instructor's discretion.

Academic Integrity:
Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University's code of Academic Integrity policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Academic Integrity at http://www.untdallas.edu/sites/default/files/page_level2/pdf/policy/7.002%20Code%20of%20Academic_Integrity.pdf for complete provisions of this code.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabrication of information or citations, facilitating acts of dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, or tampering with the academic work of other students.

Web-based Plagiarism Detection: Please be aware in some online or hybrid courses, students may be required to submit written assignments to Turnitin, a web-based plagiarism detection service, or another method. If submitting to Turnitin, please remove your title page and other personal information.

Classroom Policies

Online Attendance and Participation:

The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. Class attendance in the Blackboard classroom and participation is expected because the class is designed as a shared learning experience, and because essential information not in the textbook will be discussed in the discussion board. Online presence and participation in all class discussions is essential to the integration of course material and your ability to demonstrate proficiency. .

Attendance for this online or hybrid course is considered when you are logged in and active in Blackboard, i.e., posting assignments, taking quizzes, or completing Discussion Boards. To maintain financial aid award eligibility, activity must occur before the census date of the session or term of the course. Refer to http://www.untdallas.edu/registrar for specific dates. If you are absent/not active in the course shell, it is YOUR responsibility to let the instructor know immediately, upon your return, the reason for your absence if it is to be excused. All instructors must follow university policy 7.005 covering excused absences; however, it is the instructor's discretion, as outlined in the course syllabus, of how unexcused absences may or may not count against successful completion of the course

Inclement Weather and Online Classes: Online classes may or may not be effected by campus closures due to inclement weather. Unless otherwise notified by your instructor via e-mail, online messaging, or online announcement, students should assume that assignments are due as scheduled.

Online "Netiquette:
In any social interaction, certain rules of etiquette are expected and contribute to more enjoyable and productive communication. Emails, Discussion Board messages and/or any other forms of written communication in the online environment should use proper "netiquette" (i.e., no writing in all caps (usually denotes yelling), no curse words, and no "flaming" messages (angry, personal attacks).

Racial, ethnic, or gender slurs will not be tolerated, nor will pornography of any kind.

Any violation of online netiquette may result in a loss of points or removal from the course and referral to the Dean of Students, including warnings and other sanctions in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Student Rights Responsibilities and Conduct at http://www.untdallas.edu/osa/policies. Respect is a given principle in all online communication. Therefore, please be sure to proofread all of your written communication prior to submission.

Diversity/Tolerance Policy:
Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions in the online environment. However, offensive & inappropriate language (swearing) and remarks offensive to others of particular nationalities, ethnic groups, sexual preferences, religious groups, genders, or other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated. Disruptions which violate the Code of Student Conduct will be referred to the Dean of Students as the instructor deems appropriate.

Technology Requirements: In order to successfully access the materials in an online or hybrid course, UNT Dallas advises that your computer be equipped with the minimum system requirements.

Blackboard Learn 9.1 is the platform software for this course. Blackboard Learn supports major web browsers such as Windows Internet Explorer, Apple Safari, Mozilla Firefox, and Google Chrome. However, since the latter two are updated continually, some recent versions may not be compatible. If you experience difficulty accessing or using components of the course, try using Internet Explorer. Also, no matter what browser you use, always enable pop-ups. For more information see:
