

LAWRENCE G. NEWMAN
Newman Law Firm
A Professional Corporation

3402 McFarlin Blvd., Suite 201; Dallas, TX 75205;
214-522-7444; lgn@newman-law.com; www.newman-law.com

Educational Background:

Colorado College (BA, 1969) cum laude
University of Chicago Law School (JD, 1972)

Biography:

Larry Newman practices business law, focusing on organizations, transactions, and serving as outside general counsel to for-profit and nonprofit enterprises. He provides legal services to entrepreneurs and businesses locally, nationally, and internationally from starting a business, to drafting complex agreements, to buying and selling companies. He is the author of Texas Corporation Law (1986 -2014) and The Complete Guide to Nonprofit Corporations (2009-2014). See www.knowlespublishing.com. Has published articles in the Journal of Corporation Law, the Corporate Counsel Review, the Texas Bar Journal, and the University of Chicago Law Review. He co-authored an article on the Sarbanes-Oxley Act which was awarded the Outstanding Journal Article by the Texas Bar Foundation. Mr. Newman has litigated cases in state and federal courts, including contract disputes, insurance claims, securities litigation, corporation and partnership disputes, employment cases, commercial disputes, and probate matters. He has served as a court-appointed mediator since 1989 and has successfully mediated cases ranging from personal injury and insurance claims to employment and business disputes. Mr. Newman is also trained in civil collaborative law. He has acted as an expert witness in cases with business and conflict of interest questions. He started his own firm in 1980 and has an "a.v." (the highest) rating from Martindale Hubbell Law Directory. During law school he worked as Associate Editor of the Law Review. After law school, Mr. Newman served as Law Clerk to Chief Judge Alfred A. Arraj, U.S. District Court, Denver, Colorado (1972-1973). Mr. Newman is a Member of the American Law Institute and Adjunct Professor- Business Law, UNT-Dallas.

Books:

Texas Corporation Law, Knowles Publishing, Inc. (1986-2014).

The Complete Guide to Nonprofit Corporations, Knowles Publishing, Inc. (2009-2014).

Articles:

"After the Fall – The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002," 23 Corp. Counsel Rev. 117 (2003); 66 Tex. Bar J. 227 (March 2003) and 66 Tex. Bar J. 317 (April 2003).

"Former Corporate Counsel and Client Confidences in a Derivative Action," 4 J. of Corp. Law 321 (Winter 1979).

"Retention and Dissemination of Arrest Records--Judicial Response," 38 U. of Chicago L. Rev. 850 (1971).

Community Service:

Mr. Newman served as Chairman of the Dallas Bar Minority Participation Committee, where in 1981 he created and organized the Sarah Hughes Diversity Law Fellowship at the SMU Law School. As Chairman of the Dallas Bar Pro Bono Committee he assisted in organizing the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program, a partnership for volunteer attorneys between the Dallas Bar Association and Legal Aid of Northwest Texas. As Chairman of the Board of Legal Aid of Northwest Texas he was instrumental in organizing the Dallas Bar's annual Campaign for Equal Access. He has performed in the Dallas Bar's annual Bar None Show, which has raised more than $1 million for the Sarah Hughes Diversity Law Fellowship. He has served on the boards of several nonprofit organizations. He plays in a rock band which regularly perform in community fundraising events.