

Curriculum Vitae

Dwight D. Burns, Jr.

Area of Expertise

Currently working as Treasurer for Dallas Area Rapid Transit, I taught U.S. and Texas Politics/Government for a total of over six years as an adjunct instructor at Dallas County Community College, Austin Community College, and UNT Dallas. In addition, I have given numerous guest lectures on governmental finance policy for graduate-level courses at the University of Texas at Dallas and at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs.

I have wide-ranging experience as a leader in governmental policymaking, public sector finance, and grassroots political organizing, which all provide a substantial source of material for classroom discussion and political analysis.

Education

Master of Public Affairs	B.A., Government
LBJ School of Public Affairs	University of Texas at Austin - 1992
University of Texas at Austin – 1995

Professional Experience

1996-1999

Adjunct Instructor, U.S. and Texas Politics/Government

Austin Community College

2000-2002

Adjunct Instructor, U.S. and Texas Politics/Government

Austin Community College

2013

Adjunct Instructor, U.S. and Texas Politics/Government

University of North Texas Dallas

2016

Adjunct Instructor, Public Leadership

University of North Texas Dallas