University Policies and ProceduresStudents with Disabilities (ADA Compliance):

The University of North Texas Dallas faculty is committed to complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students' with documented disabilities are responsible for informing faculty of their needs for reasonable accommodations and providing written authorized documentation. For more information, you may visit the Office of Disability Accommodation/Student Development Office, Suite 115 or call Laura Smith at 972-780-3632.

Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness Policy:

The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider the SETE to be an important part of your participation in this class. Throughout the semester I will request from the class to complete an evaluation form to determine areas of improvement and or maintain the pace of instruction and teaching style. Your comments will be greatly appreciated.

Assignment Policy:

APA style is required for all writing assignments. Refer to the 6th edition for additional information as it is a requirement in the Department of Teacher Education. All major writing assignments will require APA style.

Students are expected to pay attention to detail in their writing assignments, projects, and presentations. Late assignments will be subject to a deduction of points and/or to the lowering of the final letter grade for the course--at the discretion of the instructor. Late assignments may be turned in ONE week after due date. Late assignments will NOT accepted after One week of due date. Late submission will be penalized 10% of the maximum grade.

Exam Policy:

Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except for documented emergencies (See Student Handbook). Documentation for any medical treatment for personal or family illness (immediate family related) or attending a funeral of an immediate family member will be required. Rescheduled exam dates must be approved before the students can make-up the exam. A sick child during the exam must be addressed with the instructor ahead of time and it is the responsibility of the student to make the appropriate arrangements before attending class.

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University's code of conduct and Academic Dishonesty policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Conduct at http://www.unt.edu/csrr/student_conduct/index.html for complete provisions of this code.

Bad Weather Policy:

On those days that present severe weather and driving conditions, a decision may be made to close the campus. In case of inclement weather, call UNT Dallas Campuses main voicemail number (972) 780-3600 or search postings on the campus website www.unt.edu/dallas. Students are encouraged to update their Eagle Alert contact information, so they will receive this information automatically.

Attendance and Participation Policy: Attendance is required. This is a professional requirement and expectation of all students attending the University of North Texas Dallas campus and a disposition that demonstrates character and leadership. The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. The class is designed as a shared learning experience and essential to the acquisition process of new information and knowledge generally located in and outside of the textbook. Emphasis for this course will focus on group discussions throughout the semester in class. The dynamic and intensive nature of this course makes it impossible for students to make-up or to receive credit for missed classes. Attendance and participation in all class meetings is essential to the integration of course material and your ability to demonstrate proficiency. Students are responsible to notify the instructor if they are missing class and for what reason. Students are also responsible to make up any work covered in class. It is recommended that each student coordinate with a classmate to obtain a copy of the class notes and any handouts. Class participation and attendance will be considered in assigning the final course grade (3 absences = drop 1 letter grade; 4 or more absences = F for the course).

Students with small children are expected to make the appropriate arrangements for child care prior to the start of the semester.

NO CHILDREN ARE ALLOWED IN CLASS. Students are not to leave their children on the UNT Dallas campus unattended. Children may attend class only if the assignment or activities pertain to a particular chapter from the text or to provide supporting information and hands on practice. The instructor will inform the class ahead of time when such an activity will take place.

In case of an illness (family, personal or child), an excused absence will apply. Receiving medical treatment at a medical clinic or emergency room or attending a family funeral, an announcement or obituary and medical document from a clinic, hospital and or physician's office will be required. Information must be presented on letterhead.

At 5 minutes past the hour, a tardy will apply followed with an absence thereafter. All late entries to class will be considered unexcused. Early morning classes will require that students plan ahead and arrive on campus early in order to avoid heavy traffic situations, severe weather conditions, or any potential accidents while in route to campus. Class will begin as scheduled.

The following attendance policy will apply. 2 tardies = 1 unexcused absence 3 tardies = 2 absences 3 absences will merit scheduling a conference with the instructor. The instructor has the right to drop the student if there is a non-passing grade on record and evidence of unprofessional work submitted on or before the due date and failure to meet with the instructor. Arriving late to class will not be tolerated.

Diversity/Tolerance Policy:

Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions. However, offensive & inappropriate language (swearing) and remarks offensive to others of particular nationalities, ethnic groups, sexual preferences, religious groups, genders, or other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated. Disruptions which violate the Code of Student Conduct will be referred to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities as the instructor deems appropriate.

Class and University Policies:

Use of WebCT/Blackboard – assignments, announcements, grades, and power point presentations will be posted on blackboard for online courses.

Use of Cell Phones & other Electronic Gadgets in the Classroom – will not be tolerated. Cell phones will be completely turned off. No texting or stepping out of class to receive a call is discouraged. It is considered rude and shows a lack of respect for those students adhering to the policies set by the instructor and supported by the university. A warning will apply should a student fail to adhere to this policy. Further action will be considered should a student continue to text, make or receive calls on his or her cell phone.

Laptops: NO LAPTOPS will be in used during a lecture or presentations. Laptops will be used based on individual and or group research assignments when permitted by the instructor.

Food & Drinks in the Classroom: Students are to eat in the commons area in building one on the first floor or in the food court area in building two. No food or dark drinks allowed in class.

Grade of Incomplete, “I” – Students seeking to receive an incomplete will need to be in good standing, have 80 % of their work completed, must meet either one of the following: 1) emergency surgery, military duties, or family medical emergency and or attending a funeral of a family member. Documents will need to be presented to the instructor upon return to the classroom. Failure to submit a document from a medical office or hospital, military branch or and or funeral home will be considered unexcused and the request for an Incomplete will not apply. The student must submit a request for an incomplete in order to receive a decision prior to the end of the semester. If approved from the dean, all work must be completed within a time frame set by the instructor. Failure to meet these requirements may result in the student receiving a low or non-passing grade.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

It is the responsibility of the student to keep a record of the number of tardies, absences, and due dates of assignments, projects, field work, student-service learning projects, quizzes, exam dates and other course work requirements. This disposition will be taken seriously from the instructor and others involved in the well-being and academic success of the student.

Course Evaluation Methods

This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course.

Exams – textbook readings, lecture notes, movie review, group discussions and class activities.

Assignments – All assignments must be presented in a professional manner. Writing assignments must be written in APA style and with clarity. All work done outside class must be typed with a cover page (12 Font, Double Space, Margins 1” all around). Make sure your cover page includes: your name, assignment’s due date, date assignment was turned in and assignment’s name and number (There will be a 10% penalty for not using required format). It is encouraged that students review their written assignments before submitting them on the due date. Outside sources will be considered as support for the written self-reflection on the advocacy plan and additional documents (letters, brochures, schedules, etc).

Projects – PowerPoint presentations and the Advocacy Plan are to be delivered and presented with research support and in a professional manner.

Class Participation – daily attendance, participation in class discussions are required. Full points will be awarded for students who demonstrate active participation, demonstrate leadership, model professionalism, demonstrate a positive disposition, and pays attention to detail.
