

Recipient	Project Title	Project Description	Amount
Total amount funded: $324,941	Total number of grants: 7
Ventura County Office of Education	Channel Islands Live : Brining the Island Marine Environment Alive for Students	To provide students with the opportunity to explore a diverse marine environment through an integrated experience.	$34,259.00
Center for Image Processing in Education	Channel Mappers	To work with teachers to promote geospatial analysis of the Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary and the Santa Barbara Channel watershed as a way of engaging students.	$50,000.00
The Regents of the University of California, Santa Barbara	Mobile REEF Program: A Vehicle for Scientific Literacy	This program will provide students with an introduction to organisms, habitats, and ecosystems occurring in our regional watersheds and extending out to the Santa Barbara Channel Islands.	$50,000.00
Channel Islands Marine Resource Institute	Strengthening Marine and Watershed Education in Multicultural Audiences of the Santa Barbara Channel Region	To prepare teachers and after school program leaders to provide meaningful experience to underrepresented students through watershed and ocean science curricula.	$49,950.00
Oak Grove School	Student-based Restoration and Stewardship of the Ojai Meadow Preserve	Students and teachers at three different schools will restore a historic wetland located in the Ojai Meadows Preserve, directly adjacent to the three schools.	$40,732.00
Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History	Santa Barbara Channel WATCH (Watershed Activities for Teaching Coastal Health)	To lead 6th graders through an interactive watershed display and to Mission Creek and the Sea Center to take water quality data.	$50,000.00
The Regents of the University of California, Santa Barbara	Teacher Enrichment Edventure in Watershed Education and Training	Teachers will learn a series of inquiry-based experiences to conduct with their students that focus on the watershed, interdisciplinary studies in math, science and writing, and hands-on field experiences.	$50,000.00