

LAHAINA HERITAGE MUSEUM

LOCATED IN THE OLD LAHAINA COURTHOUSE

FREE ADMISSION

Open Daily 9AM - 5PM

For holiday hours, call: 808-661-3262

The Lahaina Heritage Museum, located on the second floor of the Old Lahaina Courthouse, is one of Maui's major attractions. The historic building has served as a jail, a police station, a post office and a courthouse. The courthouse showcases interactive exhibits, artifacts, photographs, videos in the first floor video theater, and live demonstrations, all giving the visitor a true sense of Lahaina's rich culture and vibrant past.

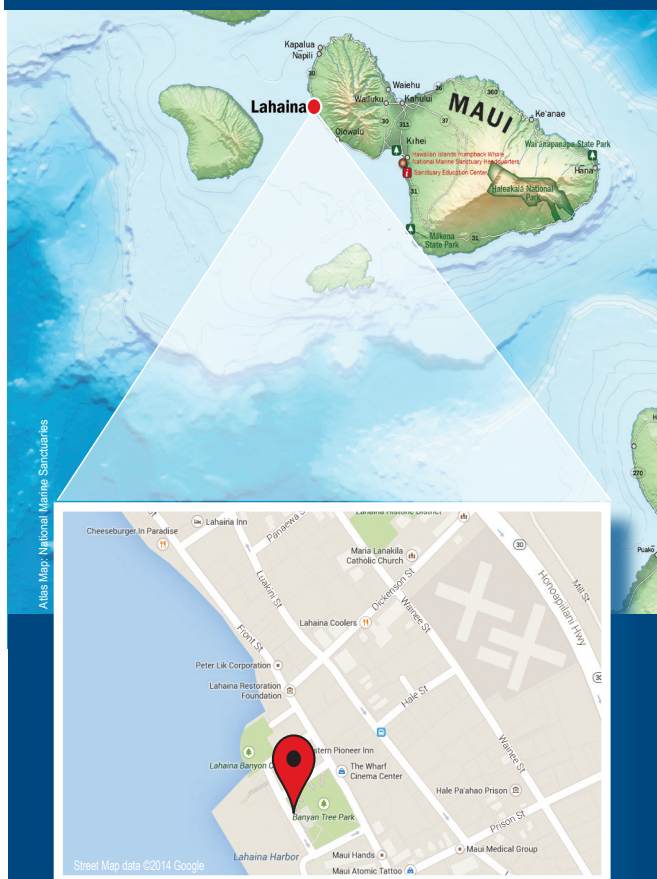

What's the significance behind this flag (top right), and can you guess how this Lahaina artifact was used (bottom right)? Find these answers and more at the Museum
