

Anthony Eggert

Program Director
ClimateWorks

Anthony Eggert is a Program Director at ClimateWorks, which supports policies for cleaner and more efficient vehicle and fuel technologies; increased availability and accessibility of transit, biking, and walking; and public support for a transition away from oil and toward low-carbon alternatives. Prior to ClimateWorks, Mr. Eggert served as the founding director of the UC Davis Policy Institute for Energy, Environment and the Economy, dedicated to leveraging university expertise to inform better policy. Anthony's public sector experience includes serving as an appointee of both Governors Jerry Brown and Arnold Schwarzenegger to help implement California's landmark clean energy and climate policies. Mr. Eggert started his career as an automotive engineer and program manager at Ford Motor Company working on regulatory compliance and advanced vehicle technology development. Mr. Eggert received his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from University of Wisconsin-Madison and holds a Master's Degree in Transportation Technology and Policy from University of California, Davis.
