

Janea Scott

Commissioner
California Energy Commission

Ms. Janea Scott was appointed by Governor Jerry Brown in February 2013. She fills the Public Member position on the five-member California Energy Commission. Prior to her appointment, Ms. Scott worked at the Department of the Interior in the Office of the Secretary as the Deputy Counselor for Renewable Energy and as the Special Assistant to the Counselor to the Secretary. In that role, Ms. Scott worked on facilitating and implementing Secretary Ken Salazar's priorities for the Department, including establishing an enduring program for renewable energy on our nation's public lands. Before joining the Interior team in April of 2009, Ms. Scott worked on clean air issues as a senior attorney at the Environmental Defense Fund, a nonprofit organization that partners with businesses, governments, and communities to find practical environmental solutions.
