

On January 20, 2016, Native American leaders and Service officials celebrated completion of the agency's revised policy guiding government-to-government relations between tribes and the agency. Sixteen tribes worked with Service representatives for more than two years to revise the policy, which in Service Director Dan Ashe's words "will foster and nurture relationships with tribes and honor the mutual trust of guardianship we hold for decades to come."

News Release

Final Revised Policy