

Biography

U.S. Army Major Roy Whitley

Major Whitley is assigned to Headquarters, Department of The Army, G-1 (Compensation and Entitlements)

He volunteered to return to Active Duty to assume the duties of Project Manager of the Retro Stop Loss Special Pay program.

His Defense Department experience includes assignments in Armor units in CONUS and Europe and over 10 years of experience on the Army and OSD staffs.

Virtually all of his staff duties were associated with: force planning, operations research, and readiness & resourcing programs. He was one of the very first OPTEMP program managers while on the Army staff. He later joined the OSD Readiness Staff in their Resource, Planning, and Assessment division.

His Civilian career has included management positions in several Information Technology companies that included: a fortune 100 company, medium sized reseller, and a venture funded technology Start-up Company.

He brings 30 years of managerial and program management experience to his current position.

He lives in Fairfax, VA. And is a native of Philadelphia, PA.