As you travel our state make sure to visit our Corps of Engineers lakes and river projects. You can navigate the Mississippi River in the west or the Tenn-Tom Waterway in the eastern part of the state. You may prefer to traverse our state by RV or automobile to experience the historical significance of literary legends like Tennessee Williams, Eudora Welty and John Grisham; or stopover for a day trip at a civil war site or museum. Don't forget to stop along the way and picnic in one of our many day use areas. Our lakes offer an array of recreational opportunities that include fishing, boating, camping, hiking, swimming and so much more! If you are looking for your next adventure or vacation destination, look no further! It is all awaiting you in Mississippi.
