ENCOURAGE

Mission

Military OneSource's mission is to eliminate the stigma associated with counseling, and to enhance military and family readiness with worldwide access to confidential help, information and referrals.

Vision

Military OneSource's vision is to provide total force access to confidential support — anytime, anywhere.

Overview

Military OneSource's information and support services directly contribute to force readiness and quality of life of the military community. Military OneSource is a great place to start when referring service members. Professional triage consultants answer calls, 24/7/365 from anywhere in the world, and actively listen, identify the issues and find specialized resources in the local community to support the identified needs.

Eligibility

In order to determine if Military OneSource will benefit service members and their families, consider these eligibility requirements.

Access to Military OneSource website articles, podcasts, webinars and social media pages is available to all service members, their families, their extended families and friends, and survivors.

Services included under confidential non-medical counseling, specialty consultations, other services and counseling, and website product orders are available to the following:

- ✓ ACTIVE DUTY
Army, Marine Corps, Navy and Air Force members
- ✓ NATIONAL GUARD
Regardless of activation status
- ✓ RESERVE
Regardless of activation status
- ✓ COAST GUARD
When activated with the Navy under Title 10 authority
- ✓ CIVILIAN EXPEDITIONARY WORKFORCE
From 90 days prior to, during, and up to 180 days after deployment
- ✓ RETIRED OR HONORABLY DISCHARGED
Up to 180 days past separation date
- ✓ IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBERS

EDUCATE

Military OneSource programs and services

Non-medical counseling (confidential)

Military OneSource will help service members and their families overcome life's challenges. Non-medical counseling sessions are provided at no cost, confidential and designed to address issues that don't require long-term support. Potential options for support include, but are not limited to:

- ✓ Communication issues
- ✓ Adjustment to situational stressors
- ✓ Stress management
- ✓ Decision making
- ✓ Grief and loss
- ✓ Life skills
- ✓ Blended-family issues
- ✓ Parenting-skills issues
- ✓ Military-specific concerns, like relocation, separation, deployment and reintegration

Non-medical counseling is available for 12 sessions per issue, per eligible service or family member and the member can request counseling for more than one issue.

Issues not covered by non-medical counseling

Non-medical counseling is not available to provide long-term support or treat diagnosed addictions or issues that require medical treatment. Individuals seeking support for issues that are not included within the scope of non-medical counseling services receive the proper referrals that match their needs. Issues that do not meet non-medical counseling requirements include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Active suicidal or homicidal thoughts
- Sexual assault
- Child abuse or neglect
- Domestic violence
- Crisis situations
- Alcohol and substance abuse
- Active Family Advocacy Program cases
- Mental health conditions that require recurring in-patient hospitalizations

Accessing non-medical counseling support

Eligible service members and their families can conveniently access military-focused, non-medical counseling professionals in the local community, over the phone, via online chat or secure live video through Military OneSource.

Eligible members can schedule services through Military OneSource by calling 800-342-9647. Services are available:

- › Face-to-face
- › By telephone
- › Via secure online chat
- › Through secure live video

Face-to-face sessions are for adults, children and groups in many locations.

Phone sessions are for adults only in CONUS and OCONUS locations.

Online sessions are for adults only in real-time chat format in all locations.

Live video sessions are for adults only in all locations.

Specialty consultations

Military OneSource personalizes each specialty consultation to fit the needs of service members and their families. Specialty consultations can provide service members and military family members with the following services and information:

- ✓ ADOPTION — Find general information, locate military-related financial assistance and identify agencies that fit the family's needs.
- ✓ ADULT DISABILITY CARE — Get the information needed on in-home care, housing, handicap accessibility resources, adult day care and financial assistance for medical equipment.
- ✓ EDUCATION — Receive information ranging from preschool to college regarding tutors, public and private school, online library resources, financial information, college profiles and more.
- ✓ ELDER CARE — Discover the housing, respite care, home health services, home safety, assistive devices and insurance information.
