
Steven R. Quentmeyer

Deputy Director, Office of Financial Operations
Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy
(Financial Management and Comptroller)

Mr. Quentmeyer is the Deputy Director, Office of Financial Operations, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller). He provides executive oversight and direction for the Department of the Navy (DON) finance and accounting operations and reporting, to include development and implementation for policies, processes, and systems. Additionally, he is responsible for general oversight of the DON's Financial Improvement Program, the Navy Manager's Internal Control Program, and serves as the Chief Accounting Officer.

Mr. Quentmeyer entered the Senior Executive Service (SES) with the Department of the Navy in November, 2012. Prior to this appointment, he served in the SES as a Senior Intelligence Officer with the United States Intelligence Community since February, 2005.

He has a combination of public, private, and military sector leadership and management experiences covering strategic planning, operations, financial management, budget formulation and execution, accounting and reporting, internal controls, contracting, and information technology systems development lifecycle management. He served as the Chief for Financial Systems Integration and Business Transformation, and as the Deputy Chief Financial Executive for Operations, with the Defense Intelligence Agency, in a complex interagency arena ensuring the accomplishment of overall intelligence objectives and priorities. He also served as the Director, Finance and Administration for the Pretrial Services Agency, an independent entity within the Executive Branch of the Federal government. He was a Principal Consultant with PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), Washington, D.C. Consulting Practice, Finance and Cost Management, and Information Technology lines of business delivering client services.

Mr. Quentmeyer received a regular commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps (USMC) in 1975, and retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in 1997. He served as a Financial Management Officer and Infantry Officer in various assignments and locations, to include Stuttgart, Germany; and Okinawa, Japan. His service included a joint tour as an International Politico-Military Affairs Officer, Europe Division, J-5 Plans and Policy Directorate, Headquarters, United States European Command; and as the Assistant Chief of Staff, J-5 Plans, Headquarters, Joint Task Force Provide Promise.

Updated 12-12

Mr. Quentmeyer holds a bachelor's of science degree in accounting and business administration from Union College, a master's of arts degree in human resources management from Pepperdine University, a master's of business administration from Webster University, and is a Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM). He attended Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government – Senior Executive Fellows Program; University of Michigan, Ross School of Business – Leading the Intelligence Community Program; United States Intelligence Community Senior Leadership Program; National Defense University, Armed Forces Staff College, Joint and Combined Staff Officer School; United States Air Force Professional Military Comptrollership Course; USMC Command and Staff College; and the USMC Amphibious Warfare School.

Mr. Quentmeyer's awards include the Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal with Star, Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal, Joint Meritorious Unit Award with Star, National Defense Service Medal with Star, Humanitarian Service Medal, Sea Service Deployment Ribbon with 3 Stars, and the Navy and Marine Corps Overseas Ribbon with 2 Stars.

Mr. Quentmeyer is a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) and the Association of Government Accountants (AGA).