Samuel G. Worth

Principal Executive Assistant Director Management and Administration Naval Criminal Investigative Service

Mr. Worth is currently the Principal Executive Assistant Director for Management and Administration. He is responsible for financial management and planning, human resources, administration and logistics, information systems, and personnel security, ensuring that all directorates are synchronized in the common goal of providing support to the operational elements of the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS).

Mr. Worth was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in May 2009 and has 23 years of Federal Service.

From August 2010 to September 2011, Mr. Worth served as the Executive Assistant Director (EAD) for Criminal Operations. In this capacity, he was responsible for three departments: Investigations and Operations, Economic Crimes Investigations, and Operational Support, serving as the primary advisor and principal EAD to the NCIS Director and Deputy Director on all economic crimes investigations, general crimes investigations, criminal intelligence investigations and operational support services.

From July 2009 through August 2010, Mr. Worth served as the EAD for Middle East and Pacific Operations. In this capacity, he was responsible for the management and operational direction of seven NCIS field offices, one Security Training Assistance & Assessment Team, and numerous subordinate elements located throughout the NW and SW U.S., Hawaii, the Far East, Southwest Asia, the Middle East and aboard carrier strike groups, as well as expeditionary strike groups. Oversight responsibilities included all counterintelligence (CI), counterterrorism (CT) and criminal investigation activities within the area of responsibility. He directed and managed an annual operating budget in excess of $61 million.

From October 2006 through June 2009, Mr. Worth served as the Special Agent in Charge of the NCIS Norfolk Field Office. In this capacity, he led 112 personnel in the execution of all operational and investigative activities in the General Crimes, Procurement Fraud, CI, CT and Cyber Crimes arenas. He developed and implemented a successful intelligence-driven, proactive operational strategy across all mission areas focused on U.S. Fleet Forces, C2F and Commander Navy Region Mid-Atlantic priority requirements.

Mr. Worth served as the Deputy Assistant Director for Protective Operations from June 2005 to September 2006. He executed program management and operational oversight for the NCIS worldwide protective operations mission and served as the principal advisor to the NCIS EAD for Combating Terrorism on all personal security matters within the Department of the Navy (DON). From August 2004 to May 2005, Mr. Worth served as the Division Chief for Protective Operations where he directed protection operations on the Secretary of the Navy, the Chief of Naval Operations and the Commandant of the Marine Corps, as well as high-risk missions in Iraq.

From June 2003 to July 2004, Mr. Worth served as the Personal Security Advisor to the Secretary of the Navy. As the NCIS Director's senior representative on the Secretary's staff, Mr. Worth planned and executed all personal protection measures surrounding the Secretary, and personally briefed the Secretary and his senior staff on the criminal, terrorist and foreign intelligence threats associated with his activities and travel.

Mr. Worth began his career with the NCIS in January 1989 at the NCIS Resident Agency (NCISRA) in Camp Lejeune, North Carolina (1989-1993, 1994-1998). He has served in a variety of organizational assignments and mission areas, both within the United States and overseas, including: Supervisory Special Agent of the NCISRA in Sigonella, Sicily (2000-2003), Desk Officer at NCIS Headquarters (1998-2000) and as a Special Agent Afloat deployed aboard the USS America (CV-66) (1993-1994).

Mr. Worth attended Norwich University in Northfield, Vermont and graduated Magna Cum Laude in 1987 with a bachelor's of arts degree in criminal justice.

Mr. Worth's awards include the DON Distinguished Civilian Service Award and the DON Meritorious Civilian Service Award.

Mr. Worth was awarded Special Agent Credentials in 1989 and holds TS/SCI (with polygraph) security clearances. His professional affiliations include the International Association of Chiefs of Police and the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association.
