FULL-TIME LIMITED ACCESS SCALLOP VESSELS

Scallop Access Area Trip Assignments for Fishing Year 2012

UPDATED VESSEL AND OWNERSHIP INFORMATION AS OF FEBRUARY 22, 2012

The attached list updates the scallop access area allocation assignments for full-time vessels announced on February 8, 2012, by revising vessel and ownership information that have changed since the original list was posted. These assignments are based on full-time vessel ownership information from February 22, 2012, and are dependent upon permit renewals for the 2012 fishing year. This update does not change any of the original allocation assignments.

The New England Fishery Management Council recently requested that we implement an emergency action to close the Delmarva Access Area and redistribute trips allocated into that area into other areas. We are currently considering this request for emergency action. Regardless of the agency's decision on taking emergency action, we will not take action prior to the March 1, 2012, start of the scallop fishing year. As a result, these trip assignments are effective for 2012 until further notice.

If we do close the Delmarva Access Area, we will notify you as soon as possible of any adjustments to your access area trip allocations. In the meantime, vessels with Delmarva trips can fish their trips at the start of 2012 or wait until we have announced any plans on adjusting these allocations.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How were these trips allocated?

A: These trips were randomly allocated based on the selection process outlined by the New England Fishery Management Council in Framework 22 to the Atlantic Sea Scallop Fishery Management Plan. Because there are four areas with split trip allocations, random assignments were run multiple times to ensure that each vessel was randomly allocated a total of four access area trips for 2012. For more information, refer to the Council's Framework 22 document on their website (<http://www.nefmc.org/scallops/index.html>).

Q: What if I wanted a trip(s) in a different area?

A: Because these trips were allocated randomly, we realize that not everyone will have trips into their preferred access area(s). However, vessels in the same permit category can exchange trips with each other. To assist you with the trip exchange process, we have included contact and permit category information in this list.
