

Do you have a health insurance problem?

Are you having trouble finding insurance?

Have you had a claim for covered benefits denied?

Has your insurance been cancelled?

You have new consumer rights and resources under the Affordable Care Act. If you need help finding health insurance, resolving a dispute with your insurer, or if you just want to find out more about what the new health care law means to you, contact your State Consumer Assistance Program. To find the Consumer Assistance Program in your state, visit www.HealthCare.gov/consumerhelp.

If your state doesn't have a CAP, this website offers contact information for other programs that may be able to offer assistance.
