THE LEADERSHIP AND KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

This section contains information specific to the Leadership and Knowledge Management system, which focuses on identifying and addressing agency leadership competencies so that continuity of leadership is ensured, knowledge is shared across the organization, and an environment of continuous learning is present.

“Leaders must assume responsibility for the development of future leaders as coaches, mentors, teachers, and – most of all – exemplars within and without leadership development programs.”

Organizations Growing Leaders: Best Practices and Principles in the Public Sector

Definition

A system that ensures continuity of leadership by identifying and addressing potential gaps in effective leadership and implements and maintains programs that capture organizational knowledge and promote learning.

Standard

Agency leaders and managers effectively manage people, ensure continuity of leadership, and sustain a learning environment that drives continuous improvement in performance, and provide a means to share critical knowledge across the organization. Knowledge management must be supported by an appropriate investment in training and technology.

Critical Success Factors

The Leadership and Knowledge Management system is comprised of five critical success factors:

- Leadership Succession Management: The organization identifies leadership competencies and establishes objectives and strategies to ensure there is a continuous pipeline of available leadership within the organization.
- Change Management: The agency has in place leaders who understand what it takes to effectively bring about changes that achieve significant and sustained improvements in performance.
- Integrity and Inspiring Employee Commitment: Leaders maintain high standards of honesty and ethics that serve as a model for the whole workforce. Leaders promote teamwork and communicate the organization's shared vision to all levels of the organization and seek feedback from employees. Employees respond by maintaining high standards of honesty and ethics.
- Continuous Learning: Leaders foster a learning culture that provides opportunities for continuous development and encourages employees to participate. Leaders invest in education, training, and other developmental opportunities to help themselves and their employees build mission-critical competencies.
- Knowledge Management: The organization systematically provides resources, programs, and tools for knowledge sharing across the organization in support of its mission accomplishment.

Together, these critical success factors ensure:

- A constant flow of leaders who can properly direct an agency's efforts to achieve results
- A workforce with the competencies required to achieve the agency's mission
- That the workforce is motivated to use its competencies in service of the agency's mission.

Applicable Merit System Principles

The following merit system principle is especially relevant to the Leadership and Knowledge Management system:

- Employees should be provided effective education and training in cases in which such education and training would result in better organizational and individual performance. (5 U.S.C. 2301(b)(7))

Required Outcome Metrics

The following are required outcome metrics for the Leadership and Knowledge Management system.

Required Metric	Description	Purpose
Organization Metric: Competency Gaps Closed for Management and Leadership	Difference between competencies needed and competencies possessed by managers and leaders	To determine how the agency should target its recruitment, retention, and development efforts to bring the competencies of its managers and leaders into alignment with the agency's current and future needs
Employee Perspective Metric: Questions from Annual Employee Survey about Satisfaction with Leadership	Items from Annual Employee Survey	To determine the extent to which employees hold their leadership in high regard, both overall and on specific facets of leadership
Merit System Compliance Metric: Merit-Based Execution of the Leadership and Knowledge Management System	An assessment of compliance with merit system principles and related laws, rules, and regulations governing the Leadership and Knowledge Management system	To determine decisions, policies, processes, and practices executed under the Leadership and Knowledge Management system comply with the merit system principles and related laws, rules, and regulations

Suggested Metrics In addition to the required outcome metrics, the following metrics associated with the Leadership and Knowledge Management system are suggested.

Suggested Metric	Description	Purpose
Bench Strength	The relationship between the number of employees in the leadership pipeline who demonstrate the required level of performance on leadership competencies and the number of critical leadership positions	To ensure enough internal organizational capacity exists to mitigate leadership attrition and maintain progress toward mission attainment
Time To Hire Critical Leadership Positions	Average time from date vacancy closes to date offer is extended (expressed in working days)	To determine the efficiency of a critical phase of the Federal hiring process
Succession Sources	Percentage of critical leadership positions filled from internal sources, other Government sources (including military), and non-Government sources	To determine the extent to which various succession planning efforts (including internal career development programs) result in the selection of critical leaders
Culture of Workforce Improvement	Items from Annual Employee Survey	To determine the extent to which employees believe their leaders have developed a culture that values personal growth
