A-1. Instrument Tested Using Crowdsourced Cognitive Interviewing

Section 1. [DEMOGRAPHICS]

The survey you are about to take is not a typical survey. It is actually a survey about a survey. We will ask you some of our survey questions and then we will ask for your feedback on those questions. Your comments and recommendations will be used to improve the survey questions in the future. We will present the survey questions to you in black font and our questions about the questions will be in blue font.

PROBE: In your own words, what is the meaning of "consent" in this context?

Unwanted sexual contact often occurs when:

- someone threatens to hurt you or someone close to you; or
- you are unable to provide consent or stop what is happening because you are passed out, drugged, drunk, incapacitated, or asleep. This could happen after you voluntarily use alcohol or drugs, or after you are given a drug without your knowledge or consent.

When answering the following questions, please consider that there are five types of unwanted sexual contact:

1. forced touching of a sexual nature (forced kissing, touching of private parts, grabbing, fondling, rubbing up against you in a sexual way, even if it is over your clothes)
2. oral sex (someone's mouth or tongue making contact with your genitals or your mouth or tongue making contact with someone else's genitals)
3. sexual intercourse (someone's penis being put in your vagina or you being forced to put your penis in someone's vagina)
4. anal sex (someone's penis being put in your anus)
5. sexual penetration with a finger or object (someone putting their finger or an object like a bottle or a candle in your vagina or your anus).

Also, keep in mind that the person(s) who had unwanted sexual contact with you could be someone you knew, such as a friend, family member, or person you were dating or hanging out with.

PROBE: What would you think about an audio option that would read these definitions to you? Would you use it?

A-2. Instrument Tested Using In-Person Cognitive Interviewing

On behalf of the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), I would like to thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. I greatly appreciate it.

Purpose: The purpose of this interview is to show you a web survey with questions about your school and experiences as a college student. We are hoping to get your feedback and opinions on these questions.

Procedure: I am going to ask you to complete a web survey as if you were taking it at home, by yourself, except I want you to read the questions out loud so I can follow along. Please answer these questions to the best of your knowledge and know that there are no right or wrong answers. After some of the survey questions I may ask you follow-up questions to better understand your answer and the way you thought about the question. As we are going through the survey, please feel free to tell me anything that comes to mind or to ask me anything you are unclear about. Feel free to think aloud as you are answering these questions. We want your honest opinions about what you like and dislike and what you do and don't understand so we can improve this survey. I also want to remind you that you do not have to answer any questions you do not want to and you can end the interview at any time.

Once you have completed the survey, I will ask you a few follow-up questions about your overall thoughts about the survey.
