ITEMS AND DEFINITIONS

← 1. Include adult probationers who have been placed under the supervision of a probation agency as part of a court order, regardless of conviction status.

← 2. Individuals entering probation more than once during the year should be counted each time (e.g., entered, discharged, and re-entered should be counted as two entries. Individuals who enter probation and, without being discharged, are placed on probation for a second offense, should be counted as one entry).

a. Probation without incarceration is a sentence to probation with no jail or prison term.

b. Probation with incarceration is a sentence to probation with a term of incarceration in jail or prison (e.g., those individuals who entered probation from a correctional facility). Include all split sentences and probations with a suspended execution of sentence to incarceration.

← 3. Individuals exiting probation more than once during the year should be counted each time (e.g., individuals who are discharged from all supervision, re-enter probation, and are fully discharged again, should be counted as two discharges).

a. Completions are probationers who completed their sentence and were discharged or who were discharged early.

b. 1. All probationers and returned absconders removed from probation supervision because of incarceration due to a sentence for a new offense.

2. All probationers and returned absconders whose probation was revoked (e.g., violating a condition of their probation) and who were incarcerated under their current sentence.

3. Probationers incarcerated pending revocation, trial, sentence, or treatment.

4. Probationers who have been incarcerated, for whom the reason was unknown.

c. Discharged probationers who had failed to report and could not be located.

d. Probationers discharged to a warrant or detainer.

e. Probationers transferred to another agency if they are no longer in your record system.

g. Specify type of discharge within the categories of other completions, unsatisfactory, and other.

1. Other completions are those which did not fully meet the definition of 3a.

2. Unsatisfactory discharges are those other than incarcerated, absconder, or discharged to a warrant or detainer.

← 4. The count of adult probationers at yearend 2007. This figure should equal the population on January 1, plus the total entering probation in 2007, minus the total discharged from probation in 2007. (See cover page for persons to INCLUDE and EXCLUDE.)
