Dear Payor:

The Minerals Management Service will soon implement a new computerized exception processing module. This new module will identify those payors who, without our prior approval, report transportation and processing allowances exceeding the regulatory limits as established in 30 CFR §§ 206.104, 206.156, and 206.158 (1993). The regulations stipulate that, without our prior approval, you may not reduce royalties by more than:

- 50 percent of the value of oil or gas for transportation costs, and
- 66 2/3 percent of the value of each gas plant product for processing costs.

Furthermore, the regulations state that under no circumstances can the value of a product, for royalty purposes, be reduced to zero.

The above cited regulations became effective March 1, 1988. Therefore, we may review all Report of Sales and Royalty Remittance (Form MMS-2014) lines beginning with March 1988 sales. If the new exception processing module detects an exception, you will receive a notification letter and/or a Bill for Collection. If you wish to request an exception to exceed the regulatory allowance limits, please send your request to:

If you submit a request to exceed the regulatory allowance limits, you must also complete a Request to Exceed Regulatory Allowance Limitation (Form MMS-4393) (copy enclosed). Please note that this is a new form filing requirement. We will enter all data you submit on Form MMS-4393 into a data base. If any of the data does not pass specific computer edits, we will generate an error report and send it to you for correction. We will use this information to verify your regulatory compliance, so it is imperative that you submit accurate data on the Form MMS-4393.

All requests must include the following:

- a Request to Exceed Regulatory Allowance Limitation (Form MMS-4393),
- a copy of your arm's-length contract and/or evidence of actual costs,
- plant name, if you are requesting a processing allowance,
- sales value of production,
- allowance percentage, and
- the calculations you used to arrive at the allowance percentage. A copy of your Oil Transportation Allowance Report, Form MMS-4110; Gas Transportation Allowance Report, Form MMS-4295; or Gas Processing Allowance Summary Report, Form MMS-4109; and all of the supporting schedules are acceptable if you define the costs.

If you have questions regarding requests to exceed the allowance limits, please call Mr. James P. Morris at (303) 275-7213.

Sincerely,

James W. Shaw
