Re: Coloradoans for Water Conservation and Development and the Colorado Farm Bureau's Appeal of U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's Response to March 15, 2006 Data Quality Act Challenge

To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of the Coloradoans for Water Conservation and Development ("CWCD") and the Colorado Farm Bureau ("CFB"), collectively ("Appellants"), please find attached an Appeal of the March 15, 2006 Data Quality Act Challenge ("Challenge").

Appellants hereby appeal the decision on their request for correction of the information disseminated by the FWS and USGS. This information dissemination products violates the Data Quality Act and the resulting implementing guidelines. The information disseminated overstates threats, ignores crucial distribution, abundance and trends information, understates extensive regulatory mechanisms at the federal, state and local level and exhibits bias and inaccuracies.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,

Kent Holsinger
