CONSENT ORDER

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Background

1. This consent decree is entered between the United States ("Plaintiff") and Defendant City of Hollywood ("the City" or "Defendant").
2. This action is brought by the United States to enforce provisions of the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000 ("RLUIPA"), 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000cc, et seq.

Specifically, the United States alleges that the Defendant City of Hollywood has:

(a) treated the Hollywood Community Synagogue ("HCS") on less than equal terms with nonreligious institutions and assemblies in violation of Section 2(b)(1) of RLUIPA; and
(b) discriminated against HCS on the basis of religion or religious denomination, in violation of Section 2(b)(2) of RLUIPA, by denying HCS a permanent special exception to operate a house of worship on the real property located at 2215 and 2221 North 46th Avenue, Hollywood, Florida. The City filed an answer denying the United States' allegations.

3. HCS is currently located at 2215 and 2221 North 46th Avenue, one block south of Sheridan Street in Hollywood, Florida. Both of these properties are located in a single-family residential district. HCS holds prayer services every morning and evening at 2215 North 46th Avenue.
4. Each prayer service described in paragraph 3, above, requires the presence of a minyan, or a quorum of ten males over the age of thirteen. Approximately twenty to thirty individuals attend the Friday and Saturday evening services. Approximately fifty to sixty individuals attend the Saturday morning service.
5. Defendant's Zoning and Land Use Regulations provide that a house of worship may not operate in an area zoned for residential use without a special exception.
6. In or around February 2001, Defendant informed HCS that it would have to obtain a special exception if it wished to operate a house of worship at 2215 and 2221 North 46th Avenue.

7. On May 10, 2001, the City of Hollywood Board of Adjustment and Appeals ("BAA") granted HCS a conditional special exception. In granting the special exception, the BAA found that HCS's special-exception application satisfied the City's criteria for the granting of a special exception.
8. On May 21, 2001, City Commissioner Sal Oliveri appealed the BAA's decision. The City Commission heard the appeal on September 12, 2001.
9. After a meeting that lasted through the night, the City Commission granted HCS a limited special exception on September 13, 2001. The limited special exception included numerous conditions, including a one-year time limit, a maximum of six parking spaces on the property, and a statement that the special exception would be revoked if a Special Master found a violation of any provision of a City Ordinance if the violation were not cured within 60 days.
10. HCS applied for a second special exception on August 1, 2002. The application requested that its earlier special exception be "renewed."
11. On September 12, 2002, the City of Hollywood Development and Review Board ("DRB"), a successor body to the BAA, approved HCS's "renewed" special-exception application with conditions.
12. City Commissioner Oliveri again appealed the DRB's decision to the City Commission. The City Commission conducted a hearing on Commissioner Oliveri's request for review on October 16, 2002. After a hearing, the City Commission denied the request for review.

13. HCS applied for a third special exception on February 10, 2003, asking that its special exception be renewed or made permanent.
14. On March 13, 2003, the DRB heard HCS's request for a third special exception. The DRB granted the special exception and imposed several conditions relating to, among other things, parking and construction.
15. On March 17, 2003, Commissioner Oliveri filed a request for review of the DRB decision. The City Commission granted the request for review.
16. On June 4, 2003, the City Commission heard HCS's third application for a special exception. After a public hearing, the Commission reversed the DRB's decision and denied HCS's petition for a third special exception.
17. Defendant had never previously denied a request by a place of worship to operate in either a single-family or multiple-family residential zone until it denied HCS's special exception application.
18. Defendant currently permits other religious and nonreligious assemblies and institutions to operate in residential districts.
19. On October 16, 2003, Defendant sent HCS a letter notifying the congregation that it "must desist holding services and other related activities" at 2215 and 2221 North 46th Avenue as of October 20, 2003.
20. On July 7, 2004 the City Commission directed the City Attorney to file a lawsuit to stop further organized religious services from taking place at 2215 and 2221 North 46th Avenue.

21. The United States and the City (together "the Parties") agree that the City is a "government," and that HCS is a "religious assembly or institution" within the meaning of RLUIPA. 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000cc(2)(b)(1), cc-5(4)(A)(i). The Parties further agree that HCS's use of the property located at 2215 and 2221 North 46th Avenue as a house of worship constitutes "religious exercise," id. at § 2000cc-5(7)(A)-(B), and that the Defendant's processes and requirements regarding the grant or denial of a special exception constitute "land use regulation[s]." Id. at § 2000cc-5(5).
 22. The parties further agree that the City's denial of the HCS's special exception application constitutes an "individualized assessment" undertaken in a system of "land use regulations." Id. at § 2000cc(a)(2)(C); id. at § 2000cc-5(5).
 23. The parties further agree that the City of Hollywood has authority under Florida state law and the City of Hollywood Code to regulate and restrict the use of certain land and structures within City of Hollywood's borders, including the authority to grant the special exception sought by HCS.
- B. Consent of the Parties to Entry of This Order
24. The Parties agree that this Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1345 and 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc-2. The Parties further agree that the controversy should be resolved without further proceedings or an evidentiary hearing.
 25. As indicated by the signatures below, all parties agree to the entry of this Consent Order.

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

II. GENERAL INJUNCTION

26. For the term of this Order, Defendant shall not:
- a. Impose or implement a land use regulation in a manner that treats a religious assembly or institution on less than equal terms with a nonreligious assembly or institution;

 - c. Otherwise engage in any conduct that violates RLUIPA; or
 - d. Coerce, intimidate, threaten, interfere with or retaliate against any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of his having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of his having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of any right granted or protected by RLUIPA.

III. SPECIAL EXCEPTION APPLICATION PROCESS

27. The Commission may adopt new special exception procedures governing land-use applications for residential zones or for houses of worship and other similar uses. Those procedures must comply with the United States Constitution and with RLUIPA. Within 15 days after the City adopts such procedures, it shall provide a copy of those procedures to the Department of Justice. If the City adopts new special exception procedures, among the new procedures will be the following:

Upon receipt of an application or inquiry about the special-exception application process, the Planning Division shall provide to the applicant or the person inquiring about the application process a document that describes the application process and the criteria under which the Planning Division will accept, and the City will decide the application. The Planning Division will provide to the applicant or the person inquiring a form describing an applicant's rights under RLUIPA. The language of the form shall conform to Appendix A.
- b. Planning Division Report. The Planning Division shall issue a report concerning all special exception applications. The report shall evaluate the applicant's proposed special-exception use and any impacts associated with that use in light of (i) as-of-right uses and their potential impacts; and (ii) uses permitted by special exception on similarly situated land, including uses proffered as similarly situated by the applicant or an intervenor. Whenever the applicant is a religious institution or assembly, or whenever the applicant proposes that the property or properties at issue in the application be used, in any way, for religious purposes, the report shall evaluate the proposed use in light of RLUIPA. In light of these and other appropriate evaluations, the report shall recommend to grant, deny, or take other appropriate action on the proposed use, whether or not the proposed use is contested or a hearing is scheduled before any City board or before the City Commission.

- c. Development Review Board Hearing. The Development Review Board shall conduct a de novo review of the proposed special-exception use, including a de novo review of all applicable facts and laws. The Board's review shall take account of, among other things: (i) the Planning Division report, (ii) any submissions made by the applicant or any intervenors; (iii) stipulated evidence; (iv) the parties' exceptions to and support of the special-exception application; and (v) any other relevant materials. Whenever the applicant is a religious institution or assembly, or whenever the applicant proposes that the property or properties at issue in the application be used, in any way, for religious purposes, the Development Review Board shall evaluate the proposed use in light of RLUIPA.
- d. City Commission Hearing. If the City Commission elects to hold a hearing on any application for a special exception, or to hear an appeal from any decision of the Development Review Board with respect to any application for a special exception, the City Commission will conduct a de novo review of the proposed special-exception use, including a de novo review of all applicable facts and laws. The Commission's review shall take account of, among other things: (i) the Planning Division report, (ii) any submissions made by the applicant or any intervenors; (iii) stipulated evidence; (iv) the parties' exceptions to and support of the special-exception application; and (v) any other relevant materials. Whenever the applicant is a religious institution or assembly, or whenever the applicant proposes that the property or properties at issue in the application be used, in any way, for religious purposes, the City Commission shall evaluate the proposed use in light of RLUIPA.

APPENDIX A

On _____, 2006, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida entered a Consent Order resolving a religious-discrimination lawsuit brought by the United States against the City of Hollywood under the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000 ("RLUIPA"), for the City's treatment of the Hollywood Community Synagogue. Under the terms of the Consent Order the City of Hollywood is required, among other things, to inform all applicants for any special exception to the City's zoning code of the applicant's rights under the RLUIPA.

Under RLUIPA, no government, including the City of Hollywood, may apply its zoning or land use laws in a manner that imposes a substantial burden on the religious exercise of a person, including a religious assembly or institution. RLUIPA also provides that no government, including the City of Hollywood, may apply a land use regulation in a manner that treats a religious assembly or institution (a church, for example) on less than equal terms than a nonreligious institution or assembly (a day care center or movie theater). Finally, RLUIPA provides that no government, including the City of Hollywood, may impose a land use regulation in a manner that discriminates against a religious assembly or institution.

If you believe that any local government or municipality has discriminated against you in the implementation of its zoning or land use laws, please contact the United States Department of Justice at:
