

Kristin Farmer Autism Center

Mission first, People always!

Our Mission

The UNT Kristin Farmer Autism Center conducts evidence-based direct services, research, and training to positively impact individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder, their families, and the community.

Our Vision

Changing lives across the autism spectrum and the life span through comprehensive, collaborative, and individualized programming delivered with compassion and excellence.

Our Priorities

- Excellence in Intervention and Assessment
- Excellence in Research
- Excellence in Training
- Excellence in Organizational Improvement
- Excellence in Financial Stewardship
- Excellence in Operations
- Excellence in Community Relations

Our Key Processes

- Client and Customer Care
- Evaluation/Sustained Improvement
- Communications
- Accountability
- Health/Safety
- Compliance

Our Core Values

- Leadership
- Character
- Competence
- Compassion
- Commitment
- Collaboration